

Sharing Information Online

Use these topic prompts to start a conversation with your child about online safety.

Decide which pieces of information are safe to share online.

your full name

your favourite superhero

your home address

the name of your school

your phone number

your favourite game

a photograph of your family

what you like to eat

a password

a song you like

the name of your pet

what you had for lunch

what you think about the game you are playing online or the site you are on what you are learning at school

You might like to decide which pieces of information are safe to share online with certain people. For example, what you might share online with your family might be different to what you would share with everyone.

Use these heading cards to organise the pieces of information based on who it might be alright to share it with online. Is there anything that should be kept offline altogether?

With Family

With Friends

With Everyone

With No One

We hope you find the information on our website and resources useful. As far as possible, the contents of this resource are reflective of current professional research. However, please be aware that every child is different and information can quickly become out of date. The information given here is intended for general guidance purposes only and may not apply to your specific situation.